SERVING TEXAS VETERANS

VETERANS LAND BOARD

CHAIRWOMAN DAWN BUCKINGHAM, M.D.

AUSTIN — Today, Texas Land Commissioner Dawn Buckingham, M.D. announced that the Clyde W. Coper Texas State Veterans Home in Bonham, Texas has been selected as the winner of Best in Texoma 2022 (The Official Community Choice Awards) in Nursing Homes.

“Congratulations to the Clyde W. Coper Texas State Veterans Home and the Bonham community on this incredible achievement in Texas Veteran care,” said Commissioner Buckingham. “As a physician, it is an honor to ensure those who have placed their lives on the line for our freedom are provided affordable, long-term care.”

The Best of Texoma program selects the best local businesses and organizations by polling the communities these entities serve. There are more than 150 categories and the top three nominations from each category make it to the final voting stage where a winner is chosen.
